Individual Presentation for each conferee!

The importance of demonstrating screen contents within conference- and training-rooms is growing steadily. With the videodidact® Notebook Conference System screen contents of each conferee's notebook can be transmitted to a projector while simultaneously transmitting sound.

With the touch of a button each conferee can therefore present his/her work interactively and individually.

Technical Characteristics:

- Screen transmission in real time!
- Total independence of hard- and software as well as of operating system in use.
- One-Touch Operation over the videodidact keyboard.
- Integration to Media Control System possible (RS232)
- High Resolution (380 MHz)
- Easy Plug- and Play installation.

Fitted aluminium keyboard

Your assets:

- Attract your attendant's attention
- Enhanced motivation
- Up-to-date conference room equipment
- No re-plugging or changing of cabling necessary
